Mr. Donold Gardner

After twelve long years of teaching and coaching, the familiar face of Don Gardner will seldom be seen around St. Mary's. That typical walk of his had become a type of tradition around here, and to many of us, St. Mary's won't be the same without Mr. "G." Although we regret to see Mr. Gardner leave, the memories of all those football games and of course those biology classes, will continue to remind us of all the time and effort Mr. Gardner spent in helping St. Mary's form our futures.

Mr. Mason (Daffy) Russell

Thank-you, is such a small word for all the sincere appreciation that is felt for Mason Russell. As head lacrosse coach for the past five years, St. Mary's can be proud of both her winning, seasonal records and her successful lacrosse playing allumnus. However, Daffy's influence on St. Mary's students doesn't end on the playing field. His advice and counsel have helped many of us in making decisions concerning our future. There is no generation gap between Daffy and the students of St. Mary's, and as graduating seniors, we realize that we have been very lucky to have known and experienced the likes of a man, as rare, as Mason Russell.

THE YEAR

Homecoming

The Homecoming Week consisted of campaigning for queen, the bonfire, car rally, and football game. The week ended with the annual dance - October 22, with Silvia Margarit reigning as the 1972 Homecoming Queen.

It's Academic

St. Mary's made an impressive debut on It's Academic, as Chris Drummond, Don Harrison, and Warren Mason led the Saints to a second place finish.

Intramurals

Even with weather conditions against them, the senior girls' spirit carried them on to victory, as they defeated the underclassmen in the annual Intramural Games.

David And Lisa

After much hard work and effort, the cast of David and Lisa presented a fine performance for all to enjoy.

Santa's Christmas Program

Under the direction of Judy Moore, the Glee Club sparked Christmas spirit as the holiday vacation began ...

Intramural Awards

Following the Christmas Program, trophies were given to members of the champion teams.

Spirit Week

'72

Student cheers for faculty; B. Ball court campaigning; and massive decoration of classrooms and gym, made up the agenda for this year's Spirit Week. Booster Club sponsored the activities as usual, and the entire student body responded with that typical Saint Mary's spirit.

Blithe Spirit

Drama Club succeeds once again with the production of Blithe Spirit. It's originality in theme and plot made the play a huge success.

Precious and Few

April 29 will always be an unforgettable evening for those who attended the 1972 Junior Senior Prom. The Galleon on the South River was the setting, while "Inspiration" provided the music. The Seniors agree that the moments spent together at the Prom will remain "precious and few."
